PLAINFIELD

Interesting and Practical Addresses at Conference of Six Churches.

The November meeting of the conference of six churches was held on Wednesday, the 3d, at Plainfield.

Stomy weather diminished the attendance. However, the renovated auditorium, the floral decorations and the gracious hospitality of the entertaining church rewarded the attendants, representing all of the churches.

Rev. Messrs. Arnold and Gane led the devotion. The sermon was preached by Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford, secretary of the Connecticut Home Missionary society. The text, Ps. 30:7, "For he satisfied the hungry soul."

Illustrated by the story of Philip, the evangelist and Ethiopian ruler, there is a divine reward of faith, of instruction and of leadership and service for the inquiring soul.

Afternoon Session.

The scribe of the conference, Rev. C. H. Beck, conducted the afternoon session. Encouraging reports were given from the churches as to missionary committees and systematic benevolence.

Mrs. Gane read a paper by Mrs. D. E. Robinson of Jewett City. How One Woman Became Interested in Missions. An address by Secretary Soule was reminiscent of the missionary enterprise of the conference.

Rev. Messrs. Fuller of Norwich, Town, Smith of Westminster and Edward Gear of Griswold took part in the conference.

COLUMBIA

Hallowe'en Observance Provides Pleasure for Many—General News.

Mrs. A. S. Blizard gave a Halloween party at her home in Pine street Thursday evening last week, which was attended by about one hundred guests. The rooms had been decorated handsomely. Grain, fruits, vegetables, autumn leaves, hats, black cats, witches on broomsticks and gray squirrels were everywhere in evidence, while an old-fashioned fireplace, with its bright wood fire and steaming tea kettle hanging from the crane formed a realistic picture of ye olden time. There was music from a graphophone and piano and the guests amused themselves in various ways, by pot luck, untasting the spider web, etc. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served during the evening, and the lights were turned low and a typical Halloween ghost walked through the different rooms. The programme consisted of recitations, singing and drill work. Mrs. Mitchell is an excellent musician and Mrs. Harris is a trained elocutionist, and the children in carrying out their excellent training. During the entertainment the children were clad in sheets and masked with pillow cases so that it was impossible to distinguish the girls and the boys. These clubs were organized respectively by Mrs. John Mitchell and Mrs. W. A. Harris and under their direction a most enjoyable entertainment was given.
